Industrial & Warehousing Staff
looking for employment opportunities

</h1 >

ADM are committed to helping you find Temporary or Contract work in the Industrial and Warehousing field. We have clients looking for experienced and reliable candidates to fill a wide range of vacancies to cover for holidays, sickness, long-term absence, peak periods and so on.

Many of ADM's most committed Temporary staff go on to gain permanent employment with our clients - a process which is made easier because we charge the employer no additional fee once a period of eight consecutive weeks has been worked by the employee.

To set you on the road to finding the job that's just right for you, the first step is to attend an initial interview at one of our branches. Please bring your CV and proof of additional skills gained and training undertaken.

HERE'S HOW YOU REGISTER WITH ADM!

At ADM, we're totally committed to finding the right position for YOU! To help us achieve this, we've developed a simple three-stage Application Process:

Stage 1 – All about you!

- Checking compulsory documentation (passport or full birth certificate; proof of National Insurance Number; proof of eligibility to work in the UK)
- Work history, commitment, availability, references, language skills

Once we have this information, we can arrange an Appointment!

Stage 2 – Practical steps!

- 15-minute interview
- All documents checked and copies taken for our personnel records
- Application Form, Health & Safety tests, literacy test, numeracy test and medical questionnaire completed
- References taken (compulsory for all applicants)

Stage 3 – Your interview... and beyond!

Interviews are conducted by qualified consultants. The interview covers your employment history and experience, as well as the type of work you want. Success in the above stages will open the door to the most suitable vacancies ADM can offer.

Register with ADM now!

YOUR COMMITMENT TO ADM

- AND ALL FUTURE EMPLOYERS

ADM is justifiably proud of its excellent reputation.

You should remember that others will judge you as a representative of ADM when you attend interviews and appointments. We expect you therefore to:

- Represent ADM in the best possible manner
- Be conscious of the importance of good time-keeping
- Communicate fully with your local ADM branch

Your salary/wages

Our payment methods are simple:

- All staff are paid into their bank account
- For building society payments, we need your Roll Number
- Payments are made on Fridays by BACS transfer
- Due payments are paid one week in arrears
- ADM are responsible for the deduction and payment of National Insurance Contributions and PAYE income tax payments applicable to each Temporary worker

Holiday pay entitlement

- Under the WTR (1999) and the Working Time (Amendment) Regulations 2003, the Temporary worker is entitled to four weeks paid leave per year. All entitlement to leave must be taken during the course of the leave year in which it accrues and none may be carried forward to the next year.

- For the purpose of calculating entitlement to leave, the leave year commences 1st October.
- The entitlement to paid leave only accrues once the Temporary worker has been engaged on assignments through ADM. The entitlement to paid leave is calculated in accordance with, and in proportion to, the number of standard hours worked on assignments during the leave year ie. hours worked that do not attract overtime rates of pay. Temporary workers engaged on shift work will be paid for annual leave at normal day- shift rates of pay.
- Where the Temporary worker wishes to take any leave to which he is entitled, he is required to give at least one week's notice in writing.
